

Pastor Ron Carpenter | pt. 7

MESSAGE RECAP

Pastor Ron continues this series and explores how the Holy Spirit functions as our divine teacher, guiding us beyond surface-level spirituality into a deep, identity-transforming relationship. He wants us to remember the Holy Spirit doesn't just empower us for miracles and gifts... The Holy Spirit reeducates our thinking, uncovers our identity, and helps us break free from generational, cultural, and mental limitations.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. The Holy Spirit abides in you and reveals God's truth. He teaches you what no one else can. Recognizing patterns in how He speaks can strengthen your sensitivity to His leading. Believing that the Holy Spirit never leaves creates deep security and confidence. It transforms fear and doubt into boldness and faith in every situation.

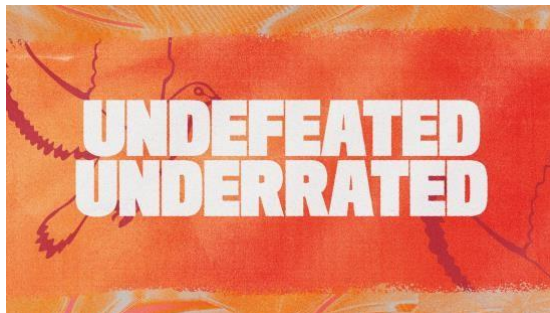

Scriptures: 1 John 2:19-20, 1 John 2:27

- What does it mean to let the Holy Spirit reeducate your thinking?
- How have you experienced His voice in your life?
- What would change if you truly believed He never leaves you?

2. Your mind often resists what your spirit knows. Transformation happens through renewing your mind with God's Word. Many of our limiting beliefs come from past wounds or cultural narratives. It's a continual process of aligning your thoughts with kingdom truth. When your mind agrees with the His Holy Spirit, transformation becomes possible.

Scriptures: Romans 12:2, Proverbs 23:7, 1 Corinthians 2 (referenced)

- What beliefs hold you back from your God-given purpose?
- How do you practically renew your mind?
- Why is it critical to align thoughts with the Spirit?

3. God calls you to come out of ethnicity, class, and generational mindsets to walk in kingdom identity. Culture and history often put invisible ceiling over us. Knowing your citizenship is in heaven gives you access to divine authority, purpose and provision. Breaking strongholds means confronting cycles that don't align with God's truth. With the Holy Spirit's help, you can be the generation that sets a new standard.

Scriptures: Genesis 12:1-3, Galatians 3, Philippians 3:20

- What labels or limitations do you feel pressured to live under?
- How does being a citizen of heaven change your mindset?
- What stronghold or generational habit are you ready to break?

CONCLUSION & CHALLENGE

You are not stuck in life—you may just be stuck in your mind! The Holy Spirit is your inner teacher, guide, and revealer. Trust Him to lead you into your identity! WE ARE NEW CREATIONS IN CHRIST JESUS! Let's allow the Lord to show us what it means to live knowing we are citizens of the kingdom! Allow Him to shape our understanding of who we are in Him!

GROUP CHALLENGE

Pair up. Pray for each other to hear the Holy Spirit. Then speak an encouraging affirmation that reflects what you believe God is saying about them.

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

Write down 3 recurring negative beliefs about yourself. Then find a Scripture to replace each one. Declare those truths daily, until the next time you meet with your Life Group! Invite the Holy Spirit to reeducate your mind.
