

House Party – Week 4

Pastor Ron Carpenter, Jr. | Discussion Guide

MESSAGE SUMMARY

We are not meant to experience God alone. When we gather together, we become the house of God—a gateway where heaven and earth meet. God has already given us every spiritual blessing, but we need wisdom, revelation, and open eyes to see what He has made available to us. Like Paul in prison, our circumstances don't have to determine our perspective. Faith helps us see beyond what is happening around us and recognize God's power at work in our lives.

OPEN IN PRAYER

Ask God to open our eyes, give us wisdom and revelation, and help us see our circumstances from His perspective.

ICEBREAKER

Have you ever experienced God in a unique way while gathered with other believers? What made that moment special?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does it mean to you that the church is called the house of God and a gateway to heaven?
2. Ephesians 1:17-18 talks about wisdom, revelation, and having the "eyes of your understanding" opened. What does it look like to see a situation from God's perspective?
3. Paul was in prison when he prayed for others to see God's hope and power. What can we learn from his perspective?
4. What is one situation where you need God to help you see beyond what is happening in the natural?

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

This week, identify one situation that has been affecting your perspective. Each day, pray: "Lord, open my eyes. Give me wisdom and revelation, and help me see this from Your perspective."

GROUP CHALLENGE

Encourage someone this week who may be struggling with their circumstances. Pray with them and remind them of God's hope and power.

CLOSING PRAYER

Father, open the eyes of our understanding. Give us wisdom and revelation to see beyond our circumstances and recognize Your power at work in us. Help us walk in the hope of our calling and encourage others along the way. In Jesus' name, amen.
